Rose,

Thank you so much. I really hope I get in, it seems so interesting and relevant to what I want to major in.

And thanks for being an awesome TA. You honestly made me really love the class and I want to try and at least minor in philosophy now. So thanks for making it interesting!

Got it, thanks! I should have time to write it this weekend. If for some reason I don't, send me another email to remind me.

The Jack the Ripper class sounds awesome! I studied the psychology of violent sociopaths as an undergraduate. It's fascinating and terrifying. I'm sure you'll have fun with it.

I've enjoyed having you in class this semester! Good luck on the final! (I doubt you need it.)
